BUT ALL DEMOCRATS REJOICE OVER THE CONVENTION'S ACTION.

A Signal Third-Party Fallure-Col Skinner's Democratic Speech-Murder in Pamlico-Other Affairs.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] RALEIGH, N. C., May 20 .- The talk is nearly all yet about the famous State convention which ended yesterday evening. To nearly every one the convention's work gives pleasure. The plat-Fourth race—one mile—Bravo won; tion's work gives pleasure. The plat-John Arkins second, Grimaldi third. form is satisfactory. There is no St. Louis business in it. There are two Alliance men on the ticket-Elias Carr for Governor and John C. Scarborough for Superintendent of Public Instruction-but there are no more uncompro mising enemies of the St. Louis platform and of Polk's plans.

Polk is a disappointed man. He expected to see great numbers of the members of the convention show Third-party inclinations and leave the convention as soon as the election of electors and delegates began. But only a few delegates left, relatively speaking, these being from Franklin, Warren, Pamlico, Perquimans, and some other counties. One eft from Wilson and scattering ones from other counties. They did not have the courage to say outright what they were going to do. WHAT THEY SAY.

They say they are waiting to see what the National Democratic Convention will do in the way of platform before they make their arrangements. The Third-party convention for North Caro-lina will not be formally called until after the national convention at Chicago has put out its platform. Polk wanted immediate action, and has advised it all this week. He urged the Alliance conference to act at once. He and Butler, the president of the State Alliance, do not act in harmony, and they have had several sharp passages.

Polk has said that he expected to be able to carry all or nearly all the Alli-ance men with him on the Third-party national platform.

A United States Pension for Mrs. Jefferson KING AND QUEEN COUNTY, VA., & May 17, 1892.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

Now that "the cruel war" is over and sectional animosity is or should have been buried with the great Confederate leader, would it not be a graceful thing for our present Congress to grant his widow a liberal pension in consideration of Colonel Jefferson Davis's eminent services as leader of the gallant Mississippi Rifles who made such a brilliant record at Buens Vista and elsewhere during the Mexican War? opinion such action would be cor-dially endorsed by every soldier North and South, whether Union or Confederate, and tend greatly toward restoration of complete harmony. As Senator Cullom is a broad-gauged man, who has always shown himself a friend to the old soldier, he would be eminently atted to lead in this movement. The writer has been for years an adopted citizen of the North; has always been a political opponent of Mr. Davis, yet having known him personally since a boy has ever regarded him a gallant soldier, a courteous gentleman, not in-clined to bear malice, and one who would have taken pride in suggesting such ac-tion toward the relict of a dead foe had

The opening of the market was made generally at small fractions below last night's prices, but the natural tendency of the market in the absence of pressure was show quickly to be the upward direction, as prices all along the line rose fractionally until the bears again attacked the Erie stocks, Atchison, and some others.
